League of Women Voters Announces Resources for State Senate District 11 Race

TULSA— The League of Women Voters of Metropolitan Tulsa will sponsor a candidate forum for State Senate District 11 candidates on Saturday, March 28th at 3:00 pm at Rudisill Regional Library. The League has also released its non-partisan voters' guide for this race. The guide is now available at lwvtulsa.org or voters can get personalized ballot information at vote411.org.

"We are pleased to have involvement from all of the candidates running for this office," said Kathleen Kastelic, Tulsa League of Women Voters president. "This, we hope, is a testament to the League's ability to reach voters. The League believes that every race is important and deserves adequate resources to help voters make informed decisions."

These resources are being released in advance of the Democratic Primary on April 7, 2015, which will fill the State Senate seat vacated by Jabar Shumate.
